The Police Accountability Board shall ensure public accountability and transparency over the powers exercised by sworn officers of the Rochester Police Department...The Board shall publish on its website monthly data on the receipt and dispositions of complaints.”

Every month, the PAB will prepare a public report for publication. The Police Accountability Board received 130 reports of which 110 are complaints received between June 20, 2022 and July 31, 2022. We also received 20 non-actionable reports that did not allege officer misconduct which are closed as “non-investigable” reports.

Month	Count of Reports
June	81
July	49
Grand Total	130

The count of complaints reflects the number of community members who contacted the Police Accountability Board to file a report providing feedback about officer conduct, practices, patterns, and policies of Rochester Police Department.

The types of cases investigated by the PAB include civilian complaints of alleged misconduct or policy violations and reports of improper RPD practices, procedures, and patterns.

The PAB’s Case Management Division processes misconduct complaints and general reports from the public and referrals from Professional Standards Section (PSS). Under the Rochester City Charter, the PAB’s jurisdiction is limited to any and all conduct, acts, or omissions by any RPD officer and recommended changes to RPD policies, procedures, patterns, practices, and training. Pursuant to § 75.4 Civil Service Law, “no removal or disciplinary proceeding shall be commenced more than eighteen months after the occurrence of the alleged incompetency or misconduct...However, such limitations shall not apply where the incompetency or misconduct complained of and described in the charges would, if proved in a court’s appropriate jurisdiction, constitute a crime.”
