QUARTERLY REPORT

Prepared by:

Delores Ivey-Paige

Director of Case Management

Date issued: 4/21/25

Reporting period: 1/1/25 – 3/31/25

Reports received during the Q3 reporting period: 28

STATEMENT OF AUTHORITY

Pursuant to Rochester City Charter Article XVIII § 18-1, “The Police Accountability Board (PAB) is an independent office of municipal government and mechanism to investigate such complaints of police misconduct and to review and assess Rochester Police Department (RPD) patterns, practices, policies, and procedures. The Police Accountability Board shall ensure public accountability and transparency over the powers exercised by sworn officers of the Rochester Police Department.”

The PAB accepts reports about officer conduct, misconduct, or practices, patterns, and policies of Rochester Police Department. The PAB investigates civilian complaints of alleged misconduct or policy violations and reports of improper RPD practices, procedures, and patterns.

Pursuant to Rochester City Charter Article XVIII § 18-11(A), “The Board shall publish on its website quarterly data on the receipt and dispositions of complaints.”

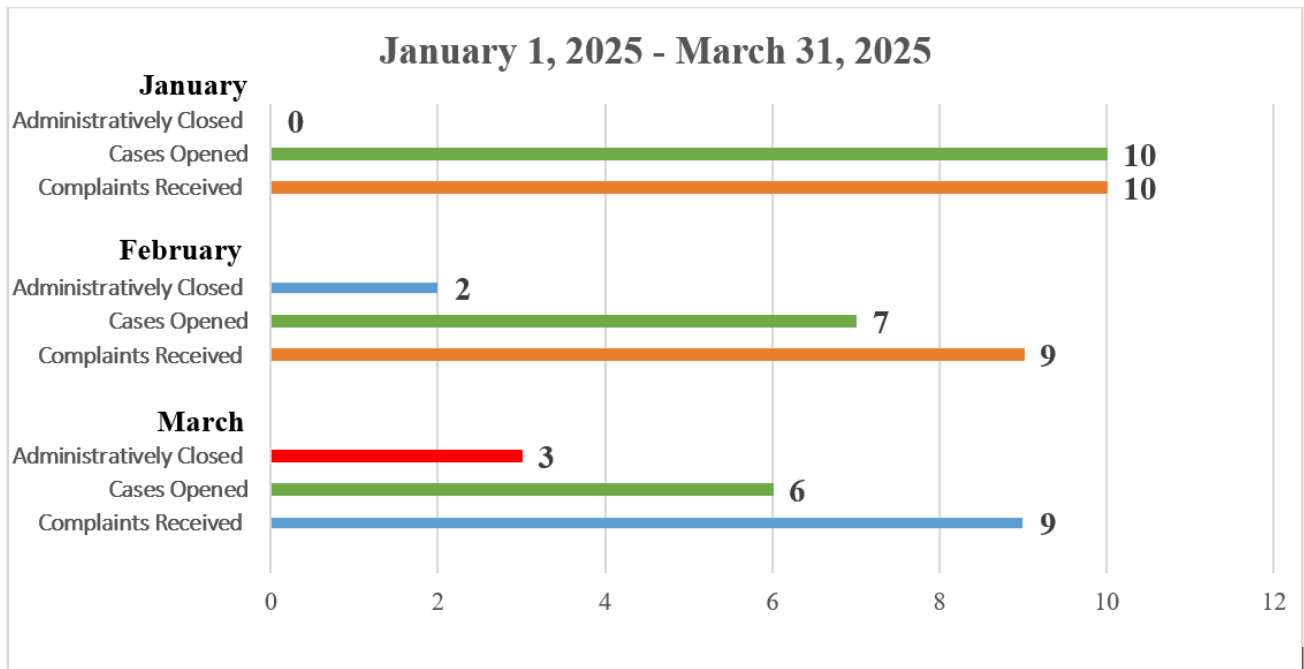

During the Q3 reporting period, the Police Accountability Board received twenty-eight (28) complaints. Of these, twenty-three (23) were opened, while five (5) were administratively closed. Additionally, six (6) cases were created internally, and the Board also reviewed, moved, and approved the closure of eight (8) cases.

Note: A reporting error was identified in the data for January 2025. The number of cases received was initially reported as nine (9); however, the correct number is ten (10). This discrepancy has been identified and corrected in the official records.

Disposition: The status of a case, and if concluded, the outcome.

Evidence Review: The Investigations Division is reviewing evidence obtained in the case.

Intake: PAB's case management team initially handles reports from the public. Case management takes reports that come via live phone calls, voicemails, an online complaint form, or email.

Interviews: The Investigations Division is preparing or conducting party interviews.

Investigation: PAB investigators gather and review evidence and information to prepare reports on misconduct allegations. An investigation ends when a findings report or investigative summary is prepared detailing the evidence and legal analysis, and the report is provided to the board for review.

Investigative Plan: The case has been assigned to an investigator and an investigative plan is being prepared.

Investigative Report: The Investigations Division is preparing a report of case findings and/or recommendations.

Investigative Review: The Director of Investigations is reviewing the complaint to determine if it meets the criteria for opening an investigation.

Misconduct: Any acts or omissions by an officer of the Rochester Police Department that are unlawful, contrary to Rochester Police Department policy, or otherwise inappropriate.

Non-Investigable: When the PAB is unable to obtain sufficient information from a reporter, determines the report is outside of PAB jurisdiction, or if the report does not contain an allegation of officer misconduct or RPD policy recommendations, the case is closed as non-investigable.

Officers: The sworn officers of the RPD, including but not limited to the Chief, deputies, captains, lieutenants, commanders, and all other sworn law enforcement professionals.

Oversight Investigation: The Policy and Oversight Division is conducting a policy-level investigation that addresses a specific subject or aims to answer a particular question.

Pending Close- Board Review: The complaint is awaiting final determination from the Board to be closed or is awaiting a panel hearing.

Policy and Oversight Review: The complaint is under review by the Policy and Oversight Division for a Proposal for Change or Oversight Investigation.

Proposal for Change: The Policy and Oversight division is preparing a Proposal for Change, which is a community and data-driven process where the PAB makes formal recommendations to change policies and practices that impact the Rochester Police Department.

Report: Any communications submitted to the PAB using its intake methods.

Request for Information: The Investigations Division has submitted a request for evidence from RPD and other relevant agencies.

The PAB is committed to producing monthly reports that are valuable to the public and welcomes feedback on how to make its data more accessible. Feedback can be submitted via email to PABFeedback@CityofRochester.gov
