STATEMENT OF AUTHORITY

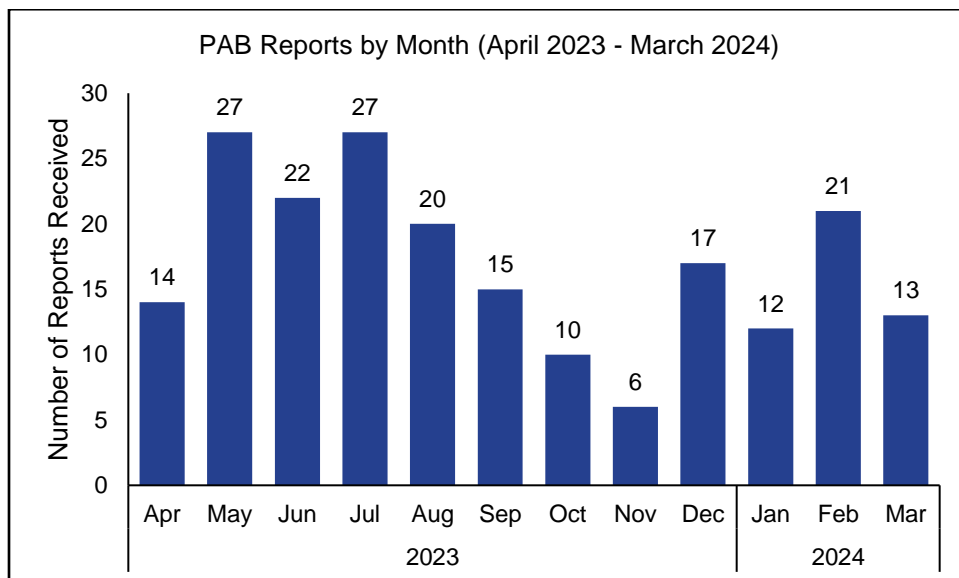

Pursuant to Rochester City Charter Article XVIII § 18-1, “The Police Accountability Board (PAB) is an independent office of municipal government and mechanism to investigate such complaints of police misconduct and to review and assess Rochester Police Department (RPD) patterns, practices, policies, and procedures. The Police Accountability Board shall ensure public accountability and transparency over the powers exercised by sworn officers of the Rochester Police Department.”

The PAB accepts reports about officer conduct, misconduct, or practices, patterns, and policies of Rochester Police Department. The PAB investigates civilian complaints of alleged misconduct or policy violations and reports of improper RPD practices, procedures, and patterns.

Pursuant to Rochester City Charter Article XVIII § 18-11(A), “The Board shall publish on its website monthly data on the receipt and dispositions of complaints.”

During the reporting period, the Police Accountability Board received 13 complaints.

The chart below shows the number of reports received over the past 12 months.

The Division of Policy & Oversight hosted a town hall session on March 28, 2024, to present information from the Juvenile Use of Force Oversight Investigation. The town hall offered insight and experiences from community members and stakeholders regarding their interactions with the Rochester Police Department. The panel included representatives from the Father Laurence Tracy Advocacy Center, Action for a Better Community, the Urban League of Rochester, the Center for Teen Empowerment, and Rochester Teen Court (a program of the Center for Youth).

The ongoing work of the Division of Policy & Oversight is available on the PAB website: <https://www.rocpab.org/policy-oversight/>.

DEFINITIONS

REPORT – Any communications submitted to the PAB using its intake methods.

COMPLAINT – A written or oral report regarding police misconduct made by any individual or group of individuals.

MISCONDUCT – Any acts or omissions by an officer of the Rochester Police Department that are unlawful, contrary to Rochester Police Department policy, or otherwise inappropriate.

OFFICERS – The sworn officers of the RPD, including but not limited to the Chief, deputies, captains, lieutenants, commanders, and all other sworn law enforcement professionals.

BOARD – The Police Accountability Board; such Board is a public agency within the meaning of New York Civil Rights Law §50-a.

DISPOSITION – The status of a case, and if concluded, the outcome.

INTAKE – PAB's case management team initially handles reports from the public. Case management takes reports that come via live phone calls, voicemails, an online complaint form, or email.

INVESTIGATION – PAB investigators gather and review evidence and information to prepare reports on misconduct allegations. An investigation ends when a findings report or investigative summary is prepared detailing the evidence and legal analysis, and the report is provided to the board for review.

NON-INVESTIGABLE – When the PAB is unable to obtain sufficient information from a reporter, determines the report is outside of PAB jurisdiction, or if the report does not contain an allegation of officer misconduct or RPD policy recommendations, the case is closed as non-investigable.

The PAB is committed to producing monthly reports that are valuable to the public and welcomes feedback on how to make its data more accessible. Feedback can be submitted via email to PABFeedback@CityofRochester.gov.
